Social Justice

Social Justice is a way of being built around practices for creating a world where people can live in peace and in fullness of life.

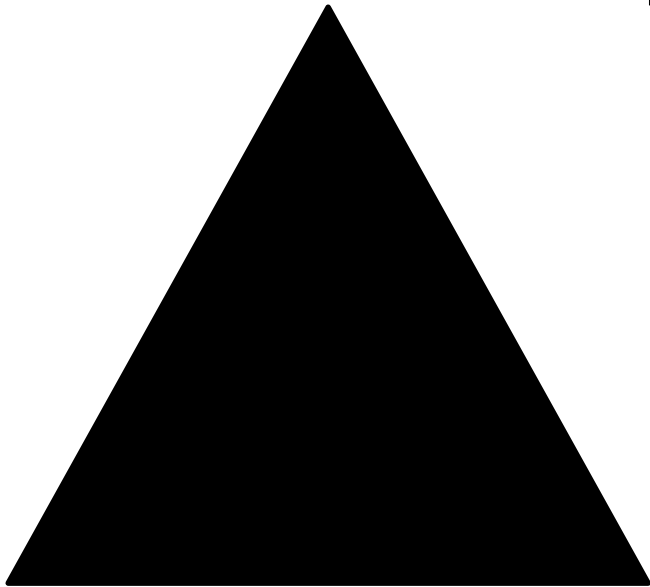

Social Justice

Social Justice is a multi-faceted and long-term process.

Social Justice Component 1

The work of justice begins and is strengthened in relationships. Build community.

Social Justice Component 2

Social justice calls us to educate ourselves and educate others.

“Education is a subversive force.”

-Richard Schaul

Social Justice Component 3

Social justice calls us to address root systems and intuitions of oppression.

Social Justice Component 4

Social justice requires that we examine our own connections to oppression.
