- Coordinate with the Community Engagement Coordinator on implementing new meal planning methods
- Solicit food donations to fill gaps and create a tracking system for community donor meal donations including contact information and items donated, and provide reports
- Recruit, retain and track volunteers by building relationships (tours, follow up, reminders, thank you’s, recognition, and attending meals & other touch points)
- Develop informational materials and trainings curriculum that encompasses a variety of nutritional best practices
- Standardize best practices to ensure that the Volunteers Team is comfortable using the system, and that volunteers have a standard process to follow moving forward
- Compile and share informational materials to residents and donors
- Research available resources and compile a contact list of partner organizations that aid residents in achieving set nutritional goals
- Develop a recordkeeping system to measure the effectiveness of the program
- Share client resources to existing programs to ensure clients have access to nutritional meals when offsite or graduating from shelter
- Participate and successfully complete all required training A New Leaf deems necessary
- Always maintain standards of confidentiality and professionalism
- Work cooperatively and respectfully with shelter staff, leadership, and clients
- Adhere to codes of conduct and standards as specified in the Volunteer Handbook
- Committed to fostering safe spaces for all, with the ability to respect and accommodate diverse stakeholders

Key Skills, Knowledge, Abilities, & Qualifications
