Check with your employer: request time off to vote if you need it! AZ law entitles you to 3 hours of paid voting leave.

Voting can feel overwhelming. When you make time to write down dates, choose a path, and locate polling places, voting isn't such a big deal.

Are you registered?
Great, make a plan!

Step 4

Get out and vote,
Hunger Hero!

Polling locations will be open at 6am and you must be in line by 7pm to be able to vote.

Stay in line if you arrive by 7pm!

Remember, your vote can support a #HungerFreeAZ.

Consider this: your vote can also support your neighbors who aren't eligible or able to vote.

Voting is one way we can increase access to healthy, affordable food for everyone.

So get out the vote, Arizona!

And only 27% of registered voters turned out for this year's primary election.

It's true. But food insecurity isn't inevitable. It's a policy decision.

Did you know that 1 in 7 Arizonans and 1 in 5 kids experience food insecurity?
